

UNIFORM AND DRESS CODE POLICY

Education Regulation 189a on school dress code (January 27, 1994) provides as follows:- ("Administrative Instructions and Guidelines", Section 3, Student Matters, Paragraph 95)

- the right for Governing Councils to determine school dress policy
- consultation entitlements and processes
- enforcement obligations and exemption conditions

VALE PARK PRIMARY SCHOOL HAS A UNIFORM AND A DRESS CODE

The school uniform can be purchased from the Uniform Shop located at the school.

The dress code comprises of navy or sky blue coloured clothing and can be purchased from outside clothing outlets (These clothes can also have the logo embroidered onto them at a small cost at the Uniform Shop).

Rationale

At Vale Park Primary School we believe that the Uniform and School Dress Code:

- promotes a sense of belonging and pride in the school community
- gives the school a unique identity
- creates a sense of equity for the students
- is practical in its application to a wide range of physical activities and weather conditions
- is appropriate for both boys and girls offering a wide range of choices to suit activities
- ensures students observe health, safety and decency standards
- eliminates competition for brand name, denim and "fad" clothing and the wearing of inappropriate clothes and accessories.
- allows for easy identification in school and on excursions.
- is in accordance with the Cancer Council SA's Sun Smart Policy

Implementation of the Uniform and Dress Code

It is expected that all students will comply with the Uniform and Dress Code. Plain navy and sky blue (without branding or stripes) are the school colours.

The Principal may exempt students in extenuating circumstances upon written request from a parent/guardian.

Grounds on which a parent/guardian may seek exemption are:

- religious
- cultural or ethnic
- new students (time to purchase, may wear previous uniform)
- itinerant students
- financial hardship
- genuine medical reasons

Governing Council encourage all students to wear the school uniform, which includes the current school logo.
